AN INVESTMENT THAT MATTERS.

"Being a kid can be hard. I remember how it felt growing up, watching my mom work so hard to provide for us. My dad wasn't a part of our lives and without the support of our community, I'm not sure what we would have done. Having supports to give my brother and I a place to go after school, where we could form relationships that helped to build our confidence, skills and make us feel like we belonged, made all the difference in where I am today. That is why I donate to United Way. I know that when we give kids opportunities to grow and feel secure, it is the first step to developing successful adults. And that is something important to invest in."
